From the Headteacher

Only one more week of school before we break up for our Christmas break- no doubt everyone is getting their decorations out and lots of secret wrapping is happening! We have a very busy weekend and week ahead of us, and the children are starting to get very tired, so if it is at all possible, please try and keep extra activities to a minimum.

I am looking forward to seeing you all at the Christmas Fair on Saturday. Gates open at 12 and it runs until 3pm. There are always loads of lovely things to do, and of course, a very special visitor. There is also the Carol Service at St Nicholas on Sunday at 4pm. It is always lovely to sing the carols in the church, but do remember to bring along a torch as it can get very dark at this time of the year!

We are looking forward to the children's Nativity Play on Monday at 2pm, to which siblings and extended family are warmly invited. The children will be performing their songs to the Old Folk's home on Tuesday ahead of their evening performance (adults and older siblings only) at 6pm. Please remember to wait outside the church after dropping your child off to allow for space and privacy with the costume changes! Owing to the late night, we will be keeping our registers open until 10am on Wednesday morning to allow for a slower start in the morning and perhaps even a lie-in. School will be open as usual so you are still able to drop your children off at the usual time if you need to! We will be attending the pantomime in the afternoon and should be back by about 5pm. We will let you know if we are told anything different and if we are running late on the day, we will activate the Snow Chain to let everyone know our expected time of arrival.

Also, just a reminder that Thursday is the Kites' Christmas party- please contact the office to book your child's place at this enjoyable event, and remember that Friday is Christmas Jumper Day, and children are invited to come to school in a Christmassy outfit!

Our new caterers are also looking for someone local to join their team to work at either Radnage School (11:30-1:30pm) or Mary Towerton School (11:30-1pm) serving lunches, with pay set at £7.20 per hour. If you are interested, please contact the school office and we will pass your details on.
